RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On March 23, 2016, Cori Marshall (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she developed right shoulder pain and right arm pain as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on October 14, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 15, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report and Proffer on Damages in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) and that her claim satisfies the Althen requirements. Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that petitioner has met the statutory requirements by suffering the residual effects of her condition for more than six months. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
